THE FIVE FINGER PRAYER

You can pray this as a family, or use it to help kids pray on their own:

1. Your thumb is nearest to you. So begin your prayers by praying for those closest to you. They are the easiest to remember. To pray for our loved ones is, as C.S. Lewis once said, a "sweet duty."
2. The next finger is the pointing finger. Pray for those who teach, instruct and heal. This includes teachers, doctors, and ministers. They need support and wisdom in pointing others in the right direction. Keep them in your prayers.
3. The next finger is the tallest finger. It reminds us of our leaders. Pray for the President, leaders in business and industry and administrators. These people shape our nation and guide public opinion. They need God's guidance.
4. The fourth finger is our ring finger. Surprising to many is the fact that this is our weakest finger, as any piano teacher will testify. It should remind us to pray for those who are weak, in trouble or in pain. They need your prayers day and night. You cannot pray too much for them.
5. And lastly comes our little finger – the smallest finger of all which is where we should place ourselves in relation to God and others. As the Bible says, "The least shall be the greatest among you." Your pinkie should remind you to pray for yourself. By the time you have prayed for the other four groups, your own needs will be put into proper perspective and you will be able to pray for yourself more effectively.

SHOW THEM WHAT THEY'RE WORTH

Would you take a million dollars for your children? How about ten million or 100 million? Of course, if given the choice between money and your child, you would choose your child. However, you may choose other things over your child without even thinking about it. Things like watching TV, sitting at your computer, or talking on the phone. When this happens often, it sends a message to the child that whatever you are doing is more important or worth more to you than they are. Don't miss the opportunity to show them what they're worth. Schedule some time to give them your undivided attention. Make it a one-on-one date, or a weekly family fun night. Visit www.iMom.com for some great ideas.

SMILE MAKERS

If you know an older adult who is homebound or someone who is recovering from surgery who would enjoy a weekly phone call to brighten their day or lift their spirits, please let us know. Call Karen Hedges at 740-927-2302.

Mark your calendar now for Saturday, August 21. Plan to have a chicken BBQ supper. All proceeds will go to help pay off the building debt. That is also the night of our annual Parish Square Dance. Make it a family night of dinner and dancing. Watch the bulletin for details.

GIVE THE GIFT OF LIFE – The American Red Cross will hold a blood drive on Monday, June 28, 2010 from 1:00 – 7:00 p.m. To make an appointment, call 1-800 GIVE- LIFE. Appointments are recommended. Walk-ins must wait for an available space on the schedule.

The Ascension Connection is preparing for another issue. If you have anything you want to contribute, please send articles, pictures, etc to Lora Dunfee at lora.dunfee@stateauto.com by June 29. Also, if you are a recent high school graduate, please send Lora a picture and some info including what school you graduated from and your plans for the future.
