Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The following are excerpts from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops.

On the last Sunday of each liturgical year, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, or Christ the King.

Pope Pius XI instituted this feast in 1925 with his encyclical Quas primas ("In the first") to respond to growing secularism and atheism. He recognized that attempting to "thrust Jesus Christ and his holy law" out of public life would result in continuing discord among people and nations. This solemnity reminds us that, while governments come and go, Christ reigns as King forever.

During the early twentieth century, in Mexico, Russia, and some parts of Europe, militantly secularistic regimes threatened not just the Catholic Church and its faithful, but civilization itself. Pope Pius XI's encyclical gave Catholics hope and – while governments around them crumbled – the assurance that Christ the King shall reign forever. Jesus Christ "is very truth, and it is from Him that truth must be obediently received by all mankind." (Quas primas, 7)

Christ's kingship is rooted in the Church's teaching on the Incarnation. Jesus is fully God and fully man. He is both the divine Lord and the man who suffered and died on the Cross. One person of the Trinity unites himself to human nature and reigns over all creation as the Incarnate Son of God. "From this it follows not only that Christ is to be adored by angels and men, but that to Him as man, angels and men are subject, and must recognize His empire; by reason of the hypostatic union, Christ has power over all creatures." (Quas primas, 13)

The Church calls us to acknowledge Christ's kingship with our whole lives:

*He must reign in our minds, which should assent with perfect submission and firm belief to revealed truths and to the doctrines of Christ. He must reign in our wills, which should obey the laws and precepts of God. He must reign in our hearts, which should spurn natural desires and love God above all things, and cleave to Him alone. He must reign in our bodies and in our members, which should serve as instruments for the interior sanctification of our souls, or to use the words of the Apostle Paul, "as instruments of justice unto God." (Quas primas, 33)*

Today, religious freedom for many people means that we can believe whatever we want in private, but when we enter the public square or the marketplace, we may not speak of anything that relates to our faith. However, the Church acknowledges the reign of Christ, not only privately, but publicly. This solemnity encourages us to celebrate and live out our faith in public. "Thus, by sermons preached at meetings and in churches, by public Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament exposed and by solemn processions, men unite in paying homage to Christ, whom God has given them for their King." (Quas primas, 26)

For Christians, when our faith is repeatedly marginalized in public life, we can fall into the habit of compartmentalizing our lives. We love Jesus in our private lives, but we shrink from acknowledging the kingship of Christ in social life. When we celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King, we declare to the world and remind ourselves that Jesus is the Lord of the Church and of the entire universe.

God bless,
Fr. Smith

Families are considered to have diaper needs when they cannot afford a supply of diapers adequate for changing at healthy intervals. Diaper need is a public health issue that threatens child health, maternal health, and household income. Half of all households in the U.S. with young children in diapers experience diaper need. THE LEAST OF THESE

Reflection on Matthew 25:31-46

As Catholics we have learned from infancy and know in our bones that God is present with us in a most powerful way in His Word, and most especially in the Eucharist. We hear, experience, and are nourished by this sacred presence at every Mass.

The surprise the Son of Man springs on all people assembled for this final separation and judgment (“whatever you did for one of the least brothers/sisters of mine, you did for me”), connects in an inseparable manner God’s Word and Eucharist with the needs of the poor. Every act of intentional reverence we give to the Word at Mass (standing, incensation, acclimation) and to the Eucharist (kneeling, praise, care of the elements), must be mirrored in our treatment of others, especially the poor, vulnerable, and those most in need. These are, in fact, one and the same deed.

At the very end of Matthew’s Gospel, we hear the promise of Jesus to be with us always, to the end of time. Today, we learn that Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, fulfills that promise by being with us in the face of the poor, and that the King takes personally, as if done to Him, how we treat His subjects. Our action, or inaction, in response to those in need has eternal implications.

SAINT ANDREW

Feast Day: November 30

Patron Saint of: Fisherman

Andrew was Saint Peter’s brother, and was called with him. “As [Jesus] was walking by the sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is now called Peter, and his brother Andrew, casting a net into the sea; they were fishermen. He said to them, ‘Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men.’ At once they left their nets and followed him” (Matthew 4:18-20).

John the Evangelist presents Andrew as a disciple of John the Baptist. When Jesus walked by one day, John said, “Behold, the Lamb of God.” Andrew and another disciple followed Jesus. “Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, ‘What are you looking for?’ They said to him, ‘Rabbi (which translated means Teacher), where are you staying?’ He said to them, ‘Come, and you will see.’ So they went and saw where he was staying, and they stayed with him that day” (John 1:38-39a).

Little else is said about Andrew in the Gospels. Before the multiplication of the loaves, it was Andrew who spoke up about the boy who had the barley loaves and fishes. When the Gentiles went to see Jesus, they came to Philip, but Philip then had recourse to Andrew.

Legend has it that Andrew preached the Good News in what is now modern Greece and Turkey and was crucified at Patras on an X-shaped cross.

As in the case of all the apostles except Peter and John, the Gospels give us little about the holiness of Andrew. He was an apostle. That is enough. He was called personally by Jesus to proclaim the Good News, to heal with Jesus’ power and to share his life and death. Holiness today is no different. It is a gift that includes a call to be concerned about the Kingdom, an outgoing attitude that wants nothing more than to share the riches of Christ with all people.
