Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

On Saturday morning, I had the honor of attending the Ordination of five men to the priesthood for the Diocese of Columbus. Fathers Tyler Carter, Michael Haemmerle, Jason Fox, David Johnstone and Daniel Colby were ordained by Bishop Fernandes for service in the Diocese.

It is always a wonderful experience to witness the ordination of men to the priesthood as it reminds me of my own ordination, eight years ago. What an amazing life it is to serve the people of God and offer the sacraments of the Church. Please pray for these men as they begin their ministry on July 9.

I am very happy to announce that Father Jason Fox has been assigned as Parochial Vicar to St. John Neumann and Church of the Ascension with residency at the rectory at St. John Neumann.

Many of you will remember Father Fox as he served as a deacon and preached several times at our parish – he entered seminary during my time at St. Joan of Arc. I am excited he will be with you as his first assignment.

Father Fox will also be covering for me at Church of the Ascension from May 29-June 12, as I will be away visiting my parents in Florida. I know you will welcome him with open arms and make him feel right at home.

On another note, this week, our current Parochial Vicar, Father Jesse Chick, will be leaving Church of the Ascension to begin a new assignment in Northern Ohio. We wish him well on his journey and thank him for his service to our parish. Please keep Fr. Jesse in your prayers, as well.

Due to Fr. Jesse's departure and the arrival of our new priests not taking place until July, the Monday morning daily Mass will be suspended from June 3-July 15. With only one priest in the parish during this time, it is necessary to provide a day away on a weekly basis. The other Mass times will go unchanged.

As we celebrate Pentecost this weekend, let us glory in the gift of the Holy Spirit, the Advocate, and remain thankful for His work in the world, especially through the sacramental nature of the priesthood.

May God bless you,

Fr. Smith

THE APPEAL 2024, RESPOND TO HIS LOVE

Thank you to all those families that have made a gift or pledge. Your support will help to continue the vital work of the various ministries and services that reach so many in need. Your gift to the 2024 Appeal is vital to the success of the Diocesan-wide campaign and will benefit our parish. We are off to an excellent start, with pledges of $25,506.17 toward our parish goal of $42,436.17, and we can achieve this together. 100% of every dollar collected exceeding this goal will return to our parish for our needs and priorities. Please prayerfully consider your gift today and contribute to The Appeal. Thank you for your generosity!

The FLOWERS FOR THE ALTAR this weekend are in memory of Sydney Giannini by the Giannini Family.

The Red Cross has decided to do away with the additional Blood Drive rotation that began during Covid. There has not been a great attendance for those drives. They will continue to offer a drive here at Church of the Ascension every other month (there must be at least 56 days between donations). Please note that Blood Drives will take place on the following dates for the rest of this year: Mondays, July 15, September 16, and November 18, 2024.

HOLY SPIRIT, COME

Reflection on John 20:19-23

A great teacher and mentor, Sr. Margaret Ormond, OP, once described life in the Spirit as "being firmly planted in mid-air." Having reflected on this image for over 40 years, I am still learning to appreciate the depth of its invitation.

Jesus is God incarnate, and the incarnation beckons us to see and recognize God in the ordinary, in fleshiness and physicality, in time and space. This is the Church – the Body of Christ – in its pilgrimage on earth. This is our sacramental life, our rootedness, firmly, in the life, teachings and authority of the Church.

The Holy Spirit of God, represented scripturally in tongues of flame, in a great rushing wind, blows where it will. In silence and contemplation, we attune ourselves to the movements and gifts of the Spirit, and so become poised, ready, and malleable to go where the Spirit leads. This is the "mid-air" stance of our spiritual lives.

SAINT BERNARDINE OF SIENA

Saint of the Day: May 20

Patron Saint of: Advertising and Gambling

Most of the saints suffered great personal opposition, even persecution. Bernardine, by contrast, seems more like a human dynamo who simply took on the needs of the world. He was the greatest preacher of his time, journeying across Italy, calming strife-torn cities, attacking the paganism he found rampant, attracting crowds of 30,000, following Saint Francis of Assisi's admonition to preach about "vice and virtue, punishment and glory."

Compared with Saint Paul by the pope, Bernardine had a keen intuition of the needs of the time, along with solid holiness and boundless energy and joy.

When he was 20, the plague was at its height in his hometown of Siena. Sometimes as many as 20 people died in one day at the hospital. Bernardine offered to run the hospital and, with the help of other young men, nursed patients there for four months. He escaped the plague, but was so exhausted that a fever confined him for several months.

At 22, he entered the Franciscan Order and was ordained two years later. For almost a dozen years he lived in solitude and prayer, but his gifts ultimately caused him to be sent to preach. He always traveled on foot, sometimes speaking for hours in one place, then doing the same in another town.

Especially known for his devotion to the Holy Name of Jesus, Bernardine devised a symbol – IHS, the first three letters of the name of Jesus in Greek – in Gothic letters on a blazing sun. This was to displace the superstitious symbols of the day.

General of the Friars of the Strict Observance, a branch of the Franciscan Order, Bernardine strongly emphasized scholarship and further study of theology and canon law. He returned to preaching the last two years of his life, dying while traveling.
